CAMFT # 131736

You are invited to attend the Community Prevention Initiative \(CPI\) Prevention Extension No Cost Workshop, "Environmental Prevention: Strategies for Engaging Youth."

Training Description:

Environmental prevention changes the settings and messages young people are exposed to, at a community level. This workshop offers innovative methods for involving young people in prevention by using proven youth-led strategies. Specific topics include: foundations of environmental prevention as a strategy vs. campaign; presenting environmental prevention strategies to and with young people and adult allies (including approaches using visual and participatory methodologies); concrete tips and strategies for recruiting and retaining young people in prevention activities; and linking the research with the practice. Participants will engage in an action-planning activity to identify follow-up strategies. (ONE DAY WORKSHOP)

Target Audience:

School Administrators, Educators, Staff, Counselors and Nurses

CPI is funded through the California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) Prevention and Family Services Section, with training and technical assistance (TTA) administered through the Center for Applied Research Solutions (CARS). The TTA project is intended to serve California agencies and organizations involved in community-based prevention. CPI is able to provide no-cost TTA support for planning and prevention services that include a broad community perspective.
