You are invited to attend the Community Prevention Initiative \(CPI\) Prevention Extension No-Cost Workshop, "Grant Writing: Developing and Maintaining Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Prevention Programs"

Training Description:

Funding is an ongoing challenge for any prevention program, and grant writing is a key strategy to increase your support and sustain your program into the future. This workshop covers the do's and don'ts of grant writing, and provides insight into how to find potential grants, how to respond to requests for applications, what to include (and leave out) of your applications, and how to maximize the chances of winning a grant.

CPI is funded through the California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) Prevention and Family Services Section, with training and technical assistance (TTA) administered through the Center for Applied Research Solutions (CARS). The TTA project is intended to serve California agencies and organizations involved in community-based prevention. CPI is able to provide no-cost TTA support for planning and prevention services that include a broad community perspective.
