You are invited to attend the Community Prevention Initiative \(CPI\) Prevention Extension No-Cost Workshop, "Creating a Safe and Effective Mentoring Program".

Training Description:

The creation of mentoring programs is an important piece towards designing effective community programs. The concept of mentoring can improve an organization's ability to understand and meet the needs of the populations they serve. This training provides guidance on the basics needed to create a successful mentoring program. Participants will observe best practices identified within other programs and acquire knowledge on the various concepts of learning and training techniques.

The following will be addressed:

- Overview of youth mentoring
- Designing a youth mentoring program
- Exploring research-based mentoring best practices
- Developing initial and ongoing mentor trainings
- Youth development: Understanding today's youth
- Creating effective mentor/mentee matches

CPI is funded through the California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) Prevention and Family Services Section, with training and technical assistance (TTA) administered through the Center for Applied Research Solutions (CARS). The TTA project is intended to serve California agencies and organizations involved in community-based prevention. CPI is able to provide no-cost TTA support for planning and prevention services that include a broad community perspective.
