You are invited to attend the Community Prevention Initiative \(CPI\) Professional Competency No-Cost Training titled Grant Writing: Developing and Maintaining Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Prevention Programs.

Training Description:

Funding is an ongoing challenge for any prevention program, and grant writing is a key strategy to increase your support and sustain your program into the future. This workshop covers the do's and don'ts of grant writing, and provides insight into how to find potential grants, how to respond to requests for applications, what to include (and leave out) of your applications, and how to maximize the chances of winning a grant.

About the Trainer:

A former nonprofit director, Dana Goodrow, has Masters degrees in social work and public health, as well as an undergraduate degree and eight years' experience in journalism. She has served as a consultant to organizations around the State of California on projects ranging from strategic planning to evaluation. Her areas of expertise include organizational capacity building, board development, strategic planning, social media, advocacy, evaluation, mentoring, and adolescent health.
