You are invited to attend the Community Prevention Initiative \(CPI\) Prevention Extension No-Cost Workshop, "Writing Successful Grants."

Training Description:

This 6-hour training will provide insights to Writing Successful Grants. Funding is an ongoing challenge for any prevention program, and grant writing is a key strategy to increase your support and sustain your program into the future. This workshop covers the do's and don'ts of grant writing, and provides insight into how to find potential grants, how to respond to requests for applications, what to include (and leave out) of your applications, and how to maximize the chances of winning a grant.

Trainer:

A former nonprofit director, Dana Goodrow has Masters degrees in social work and public health, as well as an undergraduate degree and eight years' experience in journalism. She has served as a consultant to organizations around the State of California on projects ranging from strategic planning to evaluation and all the steps in between. Her areas of expertise include organizational capacity building, board development, strategic planning, social media, advocacy, evaluation, mentoring and adolescent health.
